THE IRISH BISHOPS CONFERENCE made a submission to the Citizens' Assembly recently regarding the 8th Amendment and the Right to Life. The submission by the Bishops looks at the issue under a number of headings: The right to Life as a fundamental personal right; Recognising the Unborn as persons; The power of language; The positive effects of Article 40.3.3 creating a culture of life; The right to life in Catholic Social Teaching. Some copies of the submission are available at the newsletter tables or on www.catholicbishops.ie.

INTERESTED IN BEING A DEACON IN THE DIOCESE OF KERRY:
Along with the other Munster dioceses who have deacons, the Diocese of Kerry will be organising an initial introductory "Come and See" year involving 6 weekends starting in Sept 2017. The age limit for ordination is 60. Application is open to all men who are practicing Catholics and have an involvement in their local parish. The first step is to contact your local priest. Kerry Diocese already has two deacons and, please God, four more will be ordained within the next two years.
