PATRICKS DAY PARADE: commences at 2pm from Mission Road towards the Plaza, around Kenmare Place, East Avenue road, Fair Hill, College Street, Plunkett Street, Main Street, New Street, Beech road, into Beech Road Car Park where the new Grandstand and stage will be located. Best wishes to all involved.

THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION is a powerful opportunity to draw of God's loving forgiveness for us, and the season of Lent reminds us to confess our sins and draw grace for the pilgrim journey ahead. Next weekend Sat 21st/Sun 22nd there will be priests joining us after the following Masses: St Mary's Cathedral Sat 6.15pm Vigil, Sun 12 noon, Church of the Resurrection Sat 7.30pm, Sun 11am, Muckross 9.30am. Take time to reflect on your own life, and may we all know the warm embrace of God the Father as we return home.

A NEW FOLK GROUP is being formed for the Church of the Resurrection. We are gathering singers and musicians who wish to bring their talents and commitment to parish life. A broad range of material will fill our song-book including contemporary Christian, traditional, liturgical, spiritual, classical and modern. If you are interested, age 18 and over, and have experience in singing or playing an instrument, come along to our 1st meeting, at St Brigid's Chapel at the Church of The Resurrection, Park Road, Killarney, Mon 23rd March at 7.30pm. For enquiries contact Paul O'Raw 087 2317204, Grace Foley 087 6710087.

COLLECTION FOR EMIGRANT SERVICES: will be taken up after Communion at all Masses this weekend 14/15th March.
