UNDERSTANDING HOLIDAYS, REST AND SABBATH: Too often now people speak of being busy, and of being too busy. Holidays build on the biblical concept of Sabbath, taking the time to rest. A Sabbath Rest on Sundays and on holidays remind us of two things: firstly is the need to recharge body, mind and soul after a busy time and before the next work to be faced; and secondly, when we stop, when we rest, all keeps going without us and the Lord is in control, and we give thanks in prayer to God for this. This is a humbling thing, and something very freeing - it's not all up to us, thanks be to God!

"Be still and know that I am God". Psalm 46:10
"Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day". Exodus 20:8
