THE KNIGHTS OF ST COLUMBANUS are an organisation for Catholic laymen dedicated to the nurturing of the faith through prayer and pastoral outreach. They run Brú Columbanus, a home from home for families who have family members in hospital. They were very involved in the county in the past and now hoping to re-establish. If interested in finding out more information, a meeting will be held in the Presbytery at the Church of the Resurrection on this Mon June 26th at 7pm. All are welcome.

HORIZONS PROGRAMME: Tune in to the Diocese of Kerry Religious and Social Affairs programme every Sunday morning on Radio Kerry 9.00am - 10.00am. Horizons reaches out to people all over the Diocese who have a keen interest in the spiritual and communicates the Christian message in the context of contemporary Irish society.

DIOCESAN COLLECTION FOR THE SICK AND RETIRED PRIESTS OF

THE DIOCESE will be taken up at all Masses next weekend July 1st and 2nd. Thanks as always for your generosity.

RALLY FOR LIFE: Following the findings of the citizens assembly there will now be a referendum on whether to introduce abortion into the constitution. There is a major Rally For Life planned for 1st July at 2pm in Parnell Square, Dublin. This is an important event to demonstrate our support for the protection of Life. It would be great if as many people as possible could attend. It will be a great day out. If you are not able to attend please pray that God can inspire our politicians to protect the most vulnerable in society.
