THE MASS OF REMEMBRANCE for those who died in 2016 was celebrated last Monday—it was a beautiful Mass and we thank all who gave their time and talents to add to the celebration. After Communion the following reflection was prayed, which some have asked for.

REFLECTION

You can shed tears that they are gone
Or you can smile because they have lived

You can close your eyes and pray that they will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that they have left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see them
Or you can be full of the love that they shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember them and only that they are gone
Or you can cherish their memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what they would want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
